

Parade Presents: Art Prize - Press Release

Parade is a pop-up exhibitions programme set up by Benjamin Lebus and Milo Astaire in 2013, which provides a platform for talented young British artists.

Since its inception, Parade has staged two highly successful exhibitions, showcasing work from some of the country's most cutting-edge young artists. Expanding their repertoire even further, Parade's third project is an art prize.

Open to anyone under the age of 25, the Parade Presents: Art Prize received an overwhelming 450 applications. The applicants were judged by a panel of distinguished leading art world figures, including fashion photographer Miles Aldridge, art curator and Founder of Paddle 8, Hikari Yokoyama, Head of Contemporary Art Day Sale at Philips, Henry Highley and Founder of Narcissus Arts, Nick Campbell, who identified 23 artists as exciting, original and relevant. The selected artists will be shown in the highly anticipated one-night exhibition next month.

The Art Prize Final will be held on Wednesday the 1st July in the illustrious Londonewcastle Project Space, in Shoreditch. It will be an introduction to a selection of the most promising young artists in the UK, and a pivotal event for collectors of emerging art. The evening will conclude with the announcement of the winner of the £1000 grand prize generously donated by Orlebar Brown.

Alongside the exhibition, there will be a series of live musical performances and tastings from some of London's most exciting food and drinks projects, which will ensure the attendance of an eclectic, creative and current London crowd.

The artists who will be exhibited are as follows: Adam Fenton, Alice Jacobs, Alice Lazarus, Ao Jing, Aphra Lupita, Austin Chaston, Christabel MacGreevy, Eva Goldwyn-Simpkins, Hannah Clarkson, Harry Hurlock, Jamie Shaw, Jesse Rivers, Josef Zachary Jackson, Julius Roberts, Lia Chiarin, Livvy Turner, Michael Cox, Oliver Bass, Pip Marshall, Raphael Giannesini, Rosanna Reed, Sam Creasey, Tabitha Tohill-Reid.

For more information on the artists, press, sponsors or the event please email info@paradepresents.com